If a peacemaker determines that the peacemaking process cannot produce an agreed resolution of the matter, the peacemaker shall transfer the case back to the district court which shall resume jurisdiction over the case.

Section 5. Limitations of peacemakers

A peacemaker shall neither force a party to resolve a disputed matter, nor shall a peacemaker have authority to adjudicate a matter which the parties cannot resolve through voluntary agreement.

Section 6. Appointment of a peacemaker

A person removed from the roster for cause, after said hearing, may appeal the removal to the court of appeals, whose decision shall be final. A peacemaker shall be an officer of the court and shall not be subject to the personnel and grievances policies of the Kiowa Tribe.
- D. Peacemakers shall be immune from civil liability for the performance of their duties and responsibilities.

Section 7. Use of Kiowa Tribe traditions and customs

A peacemaker may use cultural traditions and customs of the Kiowa Tribe, including but not limited to present day religious teachings, in the peacemaking process if the peacemaker reasonably believes that such use will further the objective of voluntarily resolving a dispute. Peacemakers may also consult with tribal elders regarding tribal customs and traditions as an aid to furthering the resolution process.

Section 8. Use of tribal traditions and customary law

Parties to a dispute may file a written request with the district court asking that their dispute be heard by a peacemaker. The request may be made either on a form provided by the court or in any written form which provides the following information:

1. The name, address, and phone number of the person requesting that the peacemaking process be used;
2. The names of the parties involved in the disputed and their mailing addresses and places of residence;
3. A short statement of the type of dispute involved in the action;
4. The reason the party desires the action to be heard by a peacemaker;
5. The names and addresses of any persons other than the named parties that the requesting party believes might have information useful to a peacemaker resolving the action; and
6. If known, information as to the party's tribal affiliation and membership.

Section 9. Procedures for requesting to transfer as an existing action to a peacemaker

Any person to an action in the district court may request that the court refer the case to a peacemaker by filing a written motion for referral. The motion for referral must comply with the requirements of the district court and incorporate consideration of all tribal traditions and customary law applicable to the action.

Section 10. General provisions

- A. If a motion for referral to a peacemaker is made by a party, the moving party shall mail a copy of the motion, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the other parties. The district court may decline to approve the referral if the court, of good cause, determines that the motion was made to needlessly delay the proceedings or if the court determines that the case is such that it would be unreasonable to believe that the case could reach resolution by a peacemaker. After a party files a motion for referral to a peacemaker, any other party may object to the motion or may consent to the motion by filing a written objection or consent with the court clerk within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the motion. A failure to respond by a party to a motion for referral to a peacemaker shall be considered an objection to the motion.

- B. The district court shall grant a joint motion for referral to a peacemaker filed by all parties to the dispute indicating that all parties consent to the referral of their dispute to a peacemaker.
- C. The district court may also, upon its own motion, refer an action to a peacemaker if the court finds that the action, in light of the totality of circumstances concerning the action known then by the court, is the type of action that may be resolved through peacemaking and all parties consent to the referral of their dispute to a peacemaker.
- D. Once a matter is referred to a peacemaker, a party or parties may not request that the matter be removed from the peacemaker and assigned back to the dockets of the district court unless such request is pursuant to a motion for a protective order.
- E. The district court shall make all referrals to a peacemaker by a duly entered order of the court.

Section 11. Procedure before a peacemaker

- A. Upon referral of a matter to a peacemaker, the district court shall notify a peacemaker of his selection and appointment by causing a copy of the district court's referral order and copies of all documents filed in the case to be mailed and/or delivered to the peacemaker. If the appointment is accepted, the peacemaker is responsible for advising the parties of his appointment in writing. The copy of the referral order shall serve as evidence of the peacemaker's authority in the matter. If the appointment is declined by the peacemaker, the district court shall select another peacemaker and follow the procedures in this paragraph.
- B. The peacemaker shall meet with the parties to resolve the dispute at a time and place agreed to by the peacemaker. The venue may be where the parties reside, in the community where the moving party resides, or a convenient place for the parties when they reside in separate communities. The peacemakers may schedule additional meetings if reasonably necessary to resolve the dispute.
- C. The Code of Civil Procedure, the Code of Criminal Procedure, and the Evidence Code of the Kiowa Tribe shall not apply to proceedings conducted by a peacemaker. Attorneys for a party and witnesses shall not have the right to participate in the peacemaking proceedings but may participate at the discretion of the peacemaker.
- D. If the parties reach agreement or resolution through the peacemaking process, the peacemaker will assist the parties in drafting a written agreement to be signed by all parties and the peacemaker. The peacemaker will present a copy of the agreement and a proposed dismissal order to the district court. The district court shall review the agreement and proposed order to ensure that those documents meet the requirements of the court. If the agreement and proposed order are sufficient, the court shall endorse the order and file the agreement and order in the case as a final, non-appealable order. The district court shall cause a copy of the entered agreement and order to be mailed to each of the parties and to the peacemaker.

- E. If the agreement and/or order does not meet the requirements of the district court, the court shall cause the agreement and/or order to be sent back to the peacemaker with suggested revisions. If the parties sign the revised agreement incorporating the suggested revisions, the peacemaker shall then present the revised agreement to the district court and the procedure described in Subsection D above shall be followed.
- F. If the parties cannot reach an agreement to resolve their dispute, the peacemaker shall certify in writing to the district court that the dispute was not resolved. The court may then refer the matter to another peacemaker or enter an order referring the matter back to the district court for further proceedings.
- G. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the peacemaker or the district court may enter an order referring any matter before a peacemaker back to the district court if the parties have not reached an agreement resolving the matter after sixty (60) days have lapsed from the date of the order from the district court referring the matter to the peacemaker.
- H. Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, a case may not be referred to a peacemaker more than one (1) time by the district court unless all of the parties in the case consent.

Section 12. Form of agreements and proposed orders

- A. A peacemaker shall not approve any agreement referred to in the previous section unless:
 - 1. the agreement contains a provision stating that all issues concerning the parties involved in the legal action are resolved;
 - 2. the agreement contains a statement that all parties have voluntarily signed the agreement and consent to the proposed order; and
 - 3. the peacemaker, upon review of the agreement in its entirety, finds that the agreement contains the complete agreement of the parties and contains sufficient information for the parties to understand their respective mutual obligations under the agreement and proposed order.
- B. A peacemaker may enter an agreement and proposed order only when the following conditions have been met;
 - 1. the court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the agreement;

2. all parties have voluntarily signed the agreement and consented to the proposed order;
 3. the order contains sufficient information regarding the full agreement so a dispute as to the order is not likely to arise in the future; and
 4. the agreement and proposed order is otherwise proper and enforceable by the district court.
- C. All orders shall set forth the names of the parties, the fact that the matter has been resolved by participation in the peacemaking process and a statement that the parties have reached an agreement to resolve their dispute.

Section 13. Enforcement of orders

An order entered pursuant to this act shall be enforceable in the same manner as other orders of the District Court of the Kiowa Tribe.

Section 14. Admissibility of statements made in the peacemaking process

Statements made by any party during the peacemaking process shall be considered statements made during settlement negotiations and shall not be admissible in any court proceedings.

Section 15. Conduct of a peacemaker

A person shall not participate as a peacemaker in any matter:

1. in which the peacemaker has a monetary or property interest;
2. in which the peacemaker is or has been a material witness; or
3. in which the peacemaker is related by blood or marriage within the second degree to any of the parties.

Section 16. Protective orders

- A. Any party or witness involved in the peacemaking process may move the district court for a protective order ending or placing limitations on the peacemaking process. The grounds for such protective order shall be:

1. harassment by the peacemaker or another person which is not properly handled by the peacemaker;
 2. invasion of personal privacy by the peacemaker to an unreasonable extent;
 3. conduct of the peacemaker which is degrading, inhumane, dangerous, assaultive, or otherwise violates individual rights;
 4. conduct by the peacemaker in violation of Section 15 of this act;
 5. the assertion of any privilege recognized by law but not respected by the peacemaker; or
 6. the assertion of any right guaranteed by tribal or federal law but not recognized by the peacemaker.
- B. A motion for a protective order shall be made in writing to the district court. Upon receipt of a motion for a protective order, the district court shall conduct a hearing on the motion. The court may grant or deny the motion in whole or in part. The court may order any remedy that it finds reasonably appropriate, even if such remedy was not requested by the party filing the motion.

Section 17. Process of peacemaking

A peacemaker is permitted to use any reasonable process or method of working with the parties to resolve their dispute as long as force, violence, threats or compulsion is not used. The basic rights of the parties shall be respected by the peacemaker and all parties during the peacemaking process.

Section 18. Forms and rules

The district court may adopt additional rules and standard forms for use in the peacemaking process.

A plea made to the Court must be made in open court with the defendant himself in Court. When the defendant pleads a former jeopardy and shall have been acquitted or convicted upon complaint, the conviction or acquittal is a bar to another complaint for the offense charged in the former, or for an attempt to commit the same, or an offense necessarily included therein of which he might have been convicted under that complaint.

2.8.4 TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT. Cases shall be tried by the Court unless the defendant shall file with the Clerk of the Court a written request for a jury trial not less than ten (10) after his arraignment. The jury shall consist of six (6) persons and shall be selected randomly from the Kiowa membership list.

2.8.5 RIGHTS OF ACCUSED. In all criminal prosecutions, the accused person shall have the right to defend himself in person or, at his own expense, by counsel; to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him face to face; to have compulsory process served for obtaining witnesses in his behalf; and to a speedy public trial by an impartial jury. No person shall be compelled in any criminal case to give evidence against himself or be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense; upon request, the accused or a juror shall be entitled to an interpreter.

2.8.6 PRESENCE OF THE DEFENDANT. The defendant in a criminal case has the right be present in Court at every stage of the proceedings, including the empaneling of the jury and the return of the verdict, where trial is by jury, and at the imposition of the sentence.

2.8.7 WAIVER OF RIGHTS.

- A. Notwithstanding the rights enumerated in Section 2.8.6, a defendant who is properly notified of the date of the trial and voluntarily absent shall be deemed to have waived the right to be present at trial and at the return of the verdict. Therefore, the trial to a jury or the Court may proceed in absentia and the verdict recorded by the Clerk of the Court. If the jury or Judge renders a guilty verdict, a bench warrant shall issue for the arrest of the defendant and he shall be sentenced within 30 days after he is apprehended or voluntarily appears on the warrant.

- B. Rule 43 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure is hereby superseded and shall be replaced with the following:

(a) When Required.

Unless this rule, Rule 5, or Rule 10 provides otherwise, the defendant must be present at:

- (1) the initial appearance, the initial arraignment, and the plea;
- (2) every trial stage, including jury empanelment and the return of the verdict; and
- (3) sentencing.

(b) When Not Required. A defendant need not be present under any of the following circumstances:

- (1) Organizational Defendant.

The defendant is an organization represented by counsel who is present.

- (2) Offense.

The offense is punishable by fine or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both, and with the defendant's written consent, the court permits arraignment, plea, trial, and sentencing to occur in the defendant's absence.

- (3) Conference or Hearing on a Legal Question.

The proceeding involves only a conference or hearing on a question of law.

- (4) Sentence Correction.

The proceeding involves the correction or reduction of sentence under Rule 35 or 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c).

- (5) Waiving Presence.

A defendant waives the right to be present under the following circumstances:

(i) when the defendant is voluntarily absent, if the court has informed the defendant of an obligation to be present and remain during trial.

(ii) when the court warns the defendant that it will remove the defendant from the courtroom for disruptive behavior, but the defendant persists in conduct that justifies removal from the courtroom.

2.8.8 CALENDAR; CLERK OF COURT'S DUTIES. The Clerk of the Court must keep a calendar of all criminal actions pending in the Court, listing them according to the date of the filing of the complaint, specifying the offense charged and whether the defendant is in custody or on bail.

2.8.9 SETTING CASES FOR TRIAL; MAXIMUM TIME; CONTINUANCES; PROOF REQUIRED; LENGTH; PRECEDENCE OF CRIMINAL CASES. The Court shall set all criminal cases for trial as soon as possible after the date of entry of the plea of the defendant. No continuances of the trial shall be granted except upon affirmative proof in open court, and upon reasonable notice, that the ends of justice require a continuance. The defendant shall be entitled to a reasonable continuance, but such continuance shall not exceed thirty (30) days, unless for good cause. Criminal cases shall be given precedence over civil cases.

2.8.10 DEATH, ILLNESS; SUBSTITUTIONS AUTHORITY OF SUBSTITUTE JUDGE. After the commencement of the trial of a criminal action or proceeding, if the judge presiding at such trial shall die, become ill, or for any other reason be unable to proceed with and finish the trial, another judge may proceed with and finish the trial. If no other judge is available, then the Clerk of that Court shall adjourn the Court until such time as by stipulation in writing between the parties to the proceeding, a judge shall be agreed upon by them and shall arrive to complete the trial. The judge authorized by this section shall proceed with and complete the trial and has the same power, authority, and jurisdiction as if the trial had originally commenced before him.

Chapter 9. FORMATION OF THE JURY

2.9.1 QUALIFICATIONS OF JURORS. The basic qualifications of a juror shall be: Any person who is a duly enrolled member of the Kiowa Tribe; who has reached his twenty-first (21st) birthday; and has been a resident within the Territory of the Kiowa Tribe for ninety (90) days; and who is not under any legal disability; and who has not been convicted of a felony or major offense in any jurisdiction.

2.9.2 JURY PANEL EXCUSED. It is within the Trial Court's discretion whether a jury summoned for the trial prior to a continuation or postponement shall remain or a new jury panel is selected.

2.9.3 CHALLENGES DEFINED. A challenge is an objection made to the trial jurors and can be made either against the entire panel, or individual jurors.

2.9.4 PANEL DEFINED. A panel is a list of jurors returned by the board of jury selectors.

2.9.5 CHALLENGE TO PANEL DEFINED, WHO MAY CHALLENGE AND REASON FOR CHALLENGE. A challenge to the panel is a written objection made regarding all the jurors returned and may be made by either party. The panel may be challenged when there is an error in the procedure used in summoning the jurors, or bias can be shown.

2.9.6 CHALLENGES TO INDIVIDUAL JURORS. A challenge to an individual juror is an objection which may be taken orally and is either for cause or peremptory.

2.9.7 ORDER AND TIME FOR EXERCISING CHALLENGES. All challenges for cause must be taken first by the defendant and then by the Tribe. Peremptory challenges may be taken by either party at any time during the seating of the jury and before the jury is sworn.

2.9.8 CHALLENGE FOR CAUSE. A challenge for cause may be made by the Tribe or by the defendant and must specify the facts constituting the causes thereof. It may be made for any of the following causes:

- b. Being a party adverse to the defendant in a civil action or having complained against or been accused by him in a criminal action.
- c. Having formed or expressed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant based on information the juror has learned, whether true or false, concerning the defendant's alleged criminal conduct.

d. A relationship between the juror and the defendant that in the opinion of the judge would cause the juror to be unable to render an impartial decision.

2.9.9 FAILURE TO CHALLENGE FOR CAUSE. Failure to challenge for cause shall constitute a waiver of the basis for challenge.

2.9.10 JURY SELECTION. The Chief Judge, in cooperation with the Clerk of the Court, and the Director of Enrollment Department of the Tribe, will establish rules regarding Jury Selection.

2.9.11 PEREMPTORY CHALLENGE, PARTIES WHO MAY TAKE, FORM, DEFINITION. A peremptory challenge can be taken by either party and may be made orally. It is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the Court may exclude him.

2.9.12 PEREMPTORY CHALLENGE; NUMBER JOINT DEFENDANTS. The defendant is entitled to two (2) and the Tribe to two (2) peremptory challenges. If two or more defendants are jointly tried for any public offense, the Tribe and the defendants shall be entitled to two (2) peremptory challenges and on the part of the defendants must be exercised jointly.

2.9.13 VACANCY FILLED. After each challenge, sustained for cause or made peremptorily, another juror shall be called, may be challenged for cause, and shall be subject to peremptory challenge.

- (5) The Trial Judge has the discretionary authority to excuse those who the Judge believes should be exempt from jury service.

Chapter 10. TRIAL PROCEDURE

2.10.1 ORDER OF PROCEDURE. The jury having been selected and sworn, the trial shall proceed as follows:

- a. The Clerk of the Trial Court judge must read the complaint and state the plea of the defendant to the jury.
- b. Opening statements shall be given by the Tribe followed by the defendant and his counsel.
- c. The Tribe must open the case and offer evidence in support of the charge. The defendant or his counsel shall have the right to cross-examine any witness called to testify by the Tribe.
- d. The defendant or his counsel may then open the defense and offer evidence in support thereof. The Tribe shall have the right to cross-examine any witness called by the defendant or his counsel.
- e. The parties may then respectively offer rebutting testimony only, unless the Court, in furtherance of justice, permits them to offer evidence upon their original case.
- f. When the evidence is concluded, the Tribe and the defendant or his counsel may argue the case to the Court and jury, the Tribe opening the argument and having the right to close same.
- g. Upon the conclusion of the arguments, the Court shall charge the jury orally or in writing, stating the law of the case. However, at the beginning of the trial or from time to time during the trial and without any request from either party, the judge may give the jury such instructions on the law applicable to the case as he may deem necessary for their guidance on hearing the case.

2.10.2 PRESUMPTION OF INNOCENCE; EFFECT: REASONABLE DOUBT; DEFENDANT'S REFUSAL TO TESTIFY; DEFENDANT'S WAIVER OF RIGHT TO BE PRESENT. A defendant in a criminal action need not testify and is presumed to be innocent until the contrary is proven. The effect of this presumption is only to place upon the Tribe the burden of proving him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant's failure to testify on his own behalf shall in no way be construed against him nor commented upon by the Tribe. When a defendant has waived his right to be present at trial, the Court, in its discretion, may allow the Tribe to comment upon the defendant's absence and waiver.

2.10.3 JOINT DEFENDANTS TRIED JOINTLY; COURT MAY DIRECT SEPARATE TRIALS. When two or more defendants are jointly charged with an offense, they shall be prosecuted jointly, provided that the Court may, in its discretion, either upon application duly made prior to trial, or upon its own finding of good cause, direct that separate trials be held.

2.10.4 INTERPRETER. In the event that any party or witness or juror requests that an interpreter be present during the trial, the Court shall appoint an interpreter from a list supplied by the Tribal Council, who shall be paid at a rate fixed by the Court, and such sum shall be taxed as costs in the case.

2.10.5 VIEW OF THE PREMISES BY JURY. It is within the Court's discretion to allow the jury to view the place in which the offense is charged to have been committed, or in which any other material fact occurred. The Court may also place the jury in the custody of the appropriate officials to bring them to the appropriate place, which shall be shown to them by a person appointed by the Court.

2.10.6 DISCHARGE OF JUROR FOR ILLNESS OR DISABILITY; NEW TRIAL. Before the jury has returned its verdict to the Court, if a juror becomes sick, or upon other good cause shown to the Court is found to be unable to perform his duty, the Court may order him to be discharged. When a juror is discharged for any of the above reasons, the Court may, upon stipulation, proceed in the absence of said juror. In the absence of such stipulation, the jury shall be discharged, and a new jury shall be empaneled to hear the case.

2.10.7 LAW QUESTIONS FOR COURT AND FACT QUESTIONS FOR JURY. Questions of law are to be decided by the Court and questions of fact by the jury.

2.10.8 INSTRUCTIONS TO JURY. At the close of evidence or at such time during the trial as the judge directs, counsel for each party may file with the judge written instructions on the law which the party requests the judge to deliver to the jury. At the same time, copies of such requests shall be furnished to opposing counsel. The judge shall inform counsel of his proposed action upon each request prior to the arguments to the jury, but the judge shall deliver his instructions to the jury after arguments are completed. No party may assign as error any portion of the judge's charge or omission therefrom unless he makes his objection before the jury retires to consider its verdict. Objections must be given out of the hearing of the jury.

2.10.9 POLL OF JURY BEFORE RECORDING VERDICT; EITHER PARTY AUTHORIZED; DISSENTING JUROR; FURTHER DELIBERATION; DISMISSAL OF JURY. On the request of either party, when a verdict is rendered but before it is recorded, the jury may be polled on the request of either party or the Court. Each juror must be asked whether it is his verdict. If any juror answers in the negative, the jury must be sent out for further deliberation. If upon returning after further deliberation, the jury is polled again and a juror answers that the verdict is not his own, then the judge shall dismiss the jury and a new trial will be ordered.

2.10.10 DIRECTION OF VERDICT OF ACQUITTAL. At any time after the evidence on either side is closed, the Court may, upon motion of the defendant or upon its own motion, direct the jury to return a verdict of acquittal; and in the event of the failure of the jury to return such a verdict of acquittal, the Court may refuse to receive any other verdict and may discharge the jury and enter a judgment of acquittal. The denial of the motion may be reviewed upon appeal to the Supreme Court of the Kiowa Tribe by the defendant.

Chapter 11. SUBMISSION TO THE JURY & VERDICT

2.11.1 PAPERS TAKEN BY JURY. Upon retiring for deliberation, the jury may take with it all instructions, exhibits, and papers that have been received in evidence along with any notes of the testimony taken in the trial by the jurors may be taken.

2.11.2 INFORMED ON ANY POINT OF LAW. After the jury has retired for deliberation, if there be any disagreement as to any part of the testimony or if it desires to be informed on any point of law arising in the case, it must require the officer to conduct it into Court; and upon its being brought in, the information required may be given at the discretion of the Trial Court.

2.11.3 JURY KEPT TOGETHER. The jury shall be under the charge of the bailiff or other officer appointed by the Court. The jury must be kept together after the cause is submitted to them by the Clerk of the Court until they have agreed upon and rendered a verdict, unless, for good cause, the judge sooner discharges them.

2.11.4 VERDICT. The jury must render a general verdict of "guilty" or "not guilty" which imports a conviction or acquittal on every material allegation in the complaint. The verdict in all criminal actions must be unanimous.

2.11.5 HUNG JURY. In the event the jury is unable to agree upon a verdict, the Judge shall dismiss the jury and order a new trial.

Chapter 12. JUDGMENT

2.12.1 TIME FOR SENTENCING FOLLOWING CONVICTION. Upon a plea of guilty or a verdict of guilty, the Court shall fix a time for sentencing, which must be within a reasonable time after the verdict is rendered. Prior to judgment, the Court may request a presentence investigation to be conducted by the probation department. All presentence reports shall be filed with the Court.

2.12.2 SENTENCING: IMPRISONMENT. When sentence of imprisonment is entered, a signed copy thereof must be delivered to the law enforcement officer as defined in this Code, or other officer.

2.12.3 PRESENCE OF DEFENDANT. When judgment is pronounced, the defendant must be personally present.

2.12.4 SUSPENSION OF SENTENCE. The Court may, on such terms and conditions as the Court may impose, suspend the imposition of sentence and release a convicted person on probation. The probation term shall not exceed the maximum term allowed under the law violated by the defendant.

2.12.5 COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE. If the Court is satisfied that justice will best be served by reducing a sentence, the Court may, at any time after one-half of the sentence has been served, commute to a lesser period any sentence imposed upon a person, upon proof that during the period of confinement the person served without misconduct and/or satisfactorily performed community service pursuant to a 2 for 1 program administered by the jail or detention facility.

2.12.6 EXPUNGEMENT. SETTING ASIDE JUDGMENT OF CONVICTION.

- A. Every person convicted of a criminal offense, on fulfillment of the conditions of probation or sentence and discharge of the court, may apply to the judge, to have the judgment of guilt set aside. The convicted person shall be informed of this right at the time of discharge.
- B. The application to set aside the judgment may be made by the convicted person or by the convicted person's attorney or probation officer authorized in writing.
- C. If the judge grants the application, the judge shall set aside the judgment of guilt, dismiss the accusations or information and order that the person be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the conviction.

Chapter 13. PROBATION

2.13.1 CONDITION OF PROBATION. The Court may release on probation a convicted person on such terms and conditions as are just and appropriate, taking into consideration the prior criminal record of the defendant, his background, character, financial condition, family obligation, and any other pertinent circumstances.

2.13.2 VIOLATION OF CONDITIONS OF PROBATION. Any person who violated the terms and conditions of his probation may be required to serve an additional jail sentence as a condition of continuing the person on probation or the Court may terminate probation and order the defendant to serve a jail term of up to one year, with no credit for time served.

Chapter 14. NEW TRIAL

2.14.1 NEW TRIAL. A new trial is defined as a retrial of the criminal charges in the same Court before another jury.

2.14.2 APPLICATION. Application for a new trial may be made only by the defendant or his attorney and must be made before the completion of the sentence. Application must be made to the Court before which the case was tried.

2.14.3 GROUNDS. The Court, on application from the defendant or on its own motion, may grant a new trial based on the following cause or causes:

- a. When proper evidence has been presented that the jury, has received any evidence, paper, or document out of Court not authorized by the Court.
- b. When the verdict has been decided by lot or by means other than a fair expression of opinion on the part of all the jurors.
- c. When the Trial Court, has refused or failed to properly instruct the jury as to the applicable law.
- d. When as a result of any other unduly prejudicial error or cause the defendant has not received a fair and impartial trial.

2.14.4 EFFECT OF A NEW TRIAL. The granting of a new trial places the parties in the same position as if no trial has been held; all testimony must be reproduced, and the former verdict cannot be used or referred to either in the evidence or in argument.

2.14.5 STATUS OF THE ACCUSED PENDING NEW TRIAL. Pending a new trial, the accused shall be entitled to bail ~~the same~~ as before the trial.

2.15.3 CONTEMPT COMMITTED NOT IN PRESENCE OF JUDGE. When the contempt is not committed in the immediate view and presence of the judge, a Warrant of Arrest may be issued by such judge and the person so guilty may be arrested and brought before the judge. The judge must give the arrested person an opportunity to present his defense. The judge may then discharge him or find him guilty of contempt.

2.15.4 PUNISHMENT. A judge may punish contempt of court in either criminal or civil proceedings by assessing a fine or by ordering imprisonment, or both; such fine not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) and/or imprisonment not to exceed forty-five (45) days plus Court costs.
