KIOWA RE-ENTRY Program

ABOUT US

Re-Entry Program was Established on September 8th, 2018. The program is for those that are enrolled with the Kiowa Tribe. Who have been incarcerated in jail/prison returning to their families and tribe's communities to become productive members of society. Re-Entry is to provide temporary support services to recently released prisoners to facilitate their reintegration into society and to reduce recidivism.
