Section 1.1 Short Title

Section 1.1 Short Title

This enactment shall be known as the “ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DUE DILIGENCE ACT OF 2017” (“Act”).

Section 1.2 Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to establish a process to evaluate and conduct due diligence for potential economic development projects, including the proposed purchase by the Tribe of the health clinic in Carnegie, Oklahoma and a convenience store near Lone Wolf, Oklahoma to determine if the proposed project or purchase represents a sound financial investment.

Section 1.3 Findings

The Legislature finds that:

- (a) The Legislature has determined that it is in the best interests of the Tribe to identify, promote, and pursue economic development projects; and,
- (b) The Tribe was recently presented with an investment opportunity involving the potential purchase of a health clinic building in Carnegie, Oklahoma, and convenience store near Lone Wolf, Oklahoma (“Clinic Project”); and,
- (c) The Tribe should establish a process to evaluate potential economic development projects, including the Clinic Project, to determine their viability, and investment and revenue potential in order to minimize risk and the loss of investment funds.

Section 1.4 Due Diligence

- (a) The Director of the Planning Office (“Director”), or in the absence of a Director, the Chairman or his designee shall conduct a thorough due diligence investigation and evaluation including preparation of a written report (“Due Diligence Report”) analyzing each potential economic development project under consideration by the Tribe.
- (b) The Director, or in the absence of a Director, the Chairman or his designee shall conduct a thorough due diligence investigation and evaluation including preparation of a Due Diligence Report analyzing the proposed Clinic Project, which shall include but not be limited to the following:
 - (i) Identification of funding to acquire and complete the Clinic Project;
 - (ii) A feasibility study analyzing the viability of the businesses;
 - (iii) A thorough analysis of the audited financial statements and audits of the existing businesses for last three years;
 - (iv) Projections of revenue for the businesses;
 - (v) A schedule of accounts payable and accounts receivable for the businesses

- (vi) Other financial information including assets, inventory, debts, liabilities, strategic plan, credit reports, and any internal controls;
- (vii) The existing businesses and their organizational structure including any organic documents, meeting minutes, resolutions, and annual reports;
- (viii) Any reports provided to the Secretary of State where the business is incorporated, if any, including a Certificate in Good Standing issued by the respective State;
- (ix) A list of Board of Directors
- (x) All assets including physical assets, real property, buildings, equipment;
- (xi) All existing leases, contracts, and other legal documents involving the businesses
- (xii) A list of employees and their qualifications, salaries, benefits, personnel policies, ;
- (xiii) Copies of all litigation documents involving the businesses, including any arbitration decisions, during the last five years, and any ongoing litigation or disputes, or threatened litigation;
- (xiv) Insurance policies in effect and claim history of the businesses;
- (xv) Copies of any permits or licenses;
- (xvi) Detailed reports on any environmental hazards, liabilities, litigation, and any related Federal, State, or local regulatory notices;
- (xvii) Status of any tax disputes, audits, settlements, liens, and tax filings for the last five years;
- (xviii) A list of professional advisors for the businesses including accounting firms, law firms, consulting firms, and other professionals used by the businesses;
- (xix) Any customer information maintained by the businesses;
- (xx) The identification and estimated costs for realtor services necessary for acquiring the property; and,
- (xxi) Any other pertinent information that will assist the Tribe in determining the economic viability of the Clinic Project.
